Civil Action No. _____

NOTICE OF REMOVAL

(Removed from Supreme Court, Kings County - Index #: 503861/2021)

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that SUNWING TRAVEL GROUP INC. s/h/a SUNWING TRAVEL GROUP (“Sunwing” or “Defendant”), by and through its undersigned counsel, hereby gives notice of removal of this Action from the Supreme Court of the State of New York, County of Kings, where it is pending under Index No. 503861/2021, to the United States District Court for the Eastern District of New York. The case is properly removed pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1332, 1441 and 1446, and E.D.N.Y. Local Civil Rule 81.1 from the Supreme Court, Kings County to the United States District Court for the Eastern District of New York. Defendant respectfully states the following:

THE STATE COURT ACTION

1. On or about February 17, 2021, plaintiff filed a Summons and Verified Complaint in Supreme Court, Kings County bearing Index No. 503861/2021, and naming Royalton Luxury Resorts, a corporation, Sunwing Travel Group, a corporation and Does 1 to 30, inclusive, as defendants. A true and correct copy of the Summons and Verified Complaint dated February 17, 2021, is annexed hereto as Exhibit “A.”

2. Defendant Sunwing was served through personal service with the Summons and Complaint on June 7, 2021, in Toronto, Canada. Defendant “Royalton Luxury Resorts” is not a legal entity and therefore has never been served. “Does 1 – 30” remain unnamed in this action and have also never been served.

3. Plaintiff’s decedent, Babette Ewen, was a resident of the State of New York. See Ex. A, ¶ 1.

4. Plaintiff Paul Ewen is a resident of the State of New York. See Ex. A. ¶ 2.

5. In his complaint, plaintiff seeks damages for injuries allegedly suffered by Babette Ewen, deceased, at the Royalton Blue Waters Resort in Jamaica, where she is alleged to have passed away due to hypertensive heart disease. Plaintiff asserts causes of action for wrongful death and survival damages. See Ex. A. ¶ 45 and 58. Plaintiff claims that he is entitled to monetary damages due to the cardiac event allegedly sustained by Babette Ewen, deceased.

6. This Supreme Court action is a suit of a wholly civil nature of which the District Court has original jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. §§ 1332, and is one that may be removed by petition pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1441(a) and (b).

DIVERSITY JURISDICTION

7. This action is removable on the basis of diversity.

8. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1332(a)(1), “[t]he district courts shall have original jurisdiction of all actions where the matter in controversy exceeds the sum or value of $75,000, exclusive of interests and costs, and is between citizens of different States.”

9. This action satisfies the complete diversity requirement of 28 U.S.C. § 1332(a)(1).

10. Plaintiff declares in the Complaint that plaintiff Paul Ewen is a resident of the State of New York and that plaintiff's decedent, Babette Ewen, was a resident of the State of New York. See Ex. A. ¶¶'s 1-2.

11. Defendant Sunwing is a Canadian company organized and existing under the laws of Ontario, with its principal place of business in Ontario, Canada. Sunwing is not a resident of New York.

12. Defendant Royalton Luxury Resorts is not a legal entity, therefore they have not been served with the Complaint and have no legal status to be a party in this lawsuit. Accordingly, Royalton Luxury Resorts is not a resident of New York.

13. Therefore, complete diversity of citizenship exists amongst the parties pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1332. Plaintiff is a citizen of the State of New York, and Sunwing is a Canadian citizen in the province of Ontario.

14. This action also satisfies the amount in controversy requirement of 28 U.S.C. § 1332(a), as plaintiff has placed more than $75,000 in controversy. Specifically, the Complaint seeks damages in an amount "that exceeds jurisdictional limits of all lower courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction." See Ex. A. ¶¶'s 54, 59. Thus, this action also satisfies the amount in controversy requirement of 28 U.S.C. § 1332(a), as the amount in controversy exceeds $75,000, exclusive of interests and costs.

PROCEDURAL REQUIREMENTS FOR REMOVAL

15. This action is properly removed pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1441 and 1446.

16. Under section 1441(a), "any civil action brought in a State court of which the district courts of the United States have original jurisdiction, may be removed by the defendant or the defendants to the district court of the United States for the district and division embracing the place where such action is pending.” 28 U.S.C. § 1441(a).

17. Plaintiffs filed this action in the Supreme Court of the State of New York, Kings County.

18. Removal is appropriate to the United States District Court for the Eastern District of New York as the Court corresponds to the judicial district embracing Kings County, the place where the action was brought, and, therefore, the proper district court to which this case should be removed. See 28 U.S.C. §§ 1441(a), 1446(a).

19. Plaintiff filed the Summons and Complaint on February 17, 2021. The Complaint was personally served on Sunwing on June 7, 2021. Accordingly, this Notice of Removal has been timely filed under 28 U.S.C. § 1446(b).

20. Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1446(a), Sunwing is simultaneously filing with this Notice of Removal true and correct copies of all process, pleadings, orders and other papers or exhibits on file in the Supreme Court of the State of New York, Kings County.

21. Additionally, in accordance with 28 U.S.C. § 1446(d), a Notice of Filing of this Notice of Removal will be filed with the Supreme Court of New York, Kings County contemporaneously with the filing of this Notice of Removal, and written notice of the filing of this Notice of Removal will be served upon Plaintiff’s counsel. A copy of the Notice of Filing of Notice of Removal is attached hereto as Exhibit “B”.

22. In filing this Notice of Removal, Sunwing denies that plaintiff has stated a claim for which relief may be granted and denies that plaintiff has been damaged in any manner. Sunwing does not waive, and specifically reserves, any and all defenses, exceptions, rights, and motions, including Fed. Rule 12(b) motion to dismiss.

WHEREFORE, Defendant Sunwing prays that this Notice of Removal be filed and said action be removed to proceed in this Court and that no further proceedings be held in the Supreme Court of the State of New York, Kings County.

Respectfully submitted this 22nd day of June, 2021.

Plaintiff Paul Ewen brings this action for the decedent's wrongful death in a representative capacity on behalf of all potential survivors and/or beneficiaries, including the following: (a) the Estate of Babette Ewen, (b) Paul Ewen, spouse of the decedent, (c) Shanice Ewen, daughter of the decedent, and (d) Nicholas Ewen, son of the decedent, and (e) any other individual entitled to recover under applicable law. Plaintiff, by his attorneys, Geragos & Geragos, APC, brings this Complaint against the Defendants Royalton Luxury Resorts ("Royalton"), Sunwing Travel Group ("Sunwing"), and DOES 1 through 30 ("Defendants") and allege as follows:

PARTIES

1. Plaintiff's decedent, Babette Ewen, at all times herein mentioned was a resident of Brooklyn, New York.
2. Plaintiff's decedent, Babette Ewen, died of hypertensive heart disease with sudden cardiac death on December 17, 2019. At all relevant times, Plaintiff Paul Ewen is a resident of Brooklyn, New York. Plaintiff Paul Ewen brings this action for the decedent's wrongful death in a representative capacity on behalf of all potential survivors and/or beneficiaries, including the following: (a) the Estate of Babette Ewen,

(b) Paul Ewen, spouse of the decedent, (c) Shanice Ewen, daughter of the decedent, and (d) Nicholas Ewen, son of the decedent, and (e) any other individual entitled to recover under applicable law.

3. Defendant Sunwing is a corporation and the largest integrated travel company in North America whose headquarters are located in Ontario, Canada at 27 Fasken Dr., Toronto, Ontario, M9W 1K6, Canada.

4. Upon information and belief, defendant Royalton Blue Waters Resort is owned and operated or controlled by defendant Sunwing Travel Group, therefore making Sunwing liable for its subsidiary.

5. At all relevant times, defendant Royalton was the owner of the premises, located at Mountain Spring, Trelawny, A1, Montego Bay, JM, Montego Bay, Jamaica.

6. At all relevant times, defendant Royalton, its agents, servants, and/or employees operated the subject premises.

7. At all relevant times, defendant Royalton, its agents, servants, and/or employees maintained the subject premises.

8. At all relevant times, defendant Royalton, its agents, servants, and/or employees controlled the subject premises.

9. At all relevant times, defendant Royalton, its agents, servants, and/or employees managed the subject premises.

10. At all relevant times, defendant Royalton, its agents, servants, and/or employees inspected the subject premises.

11. At all relevant times, defendant Royalton, its agents, servants, and/or employees supervised the subject premises.

12. At all relevant times, defendant Royalton, its agents, servants, and/or employees repaired the subject premises.

13. The true names and capacities, whether individual, corporate, associate or otherwise of defendants designated herein as DOES 1 through 30, and each of them, are unknown to plaintiff, who therefore sue said defendants by their fictitious names. Plaintiff will amend this Complaint to show their true names and capacities when they have been ascertained. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereupon alleges, that each of said fictitiously named defendant is negligently responsible in some manner for the occurrences herein alleged, and that plaintiff's injuries and damages, as herein alleged, were proximately caused by said negligence.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

14. The Court has jurisdiction over the matter alleged herein under N.Y. C.P.L.R. §301.

15. At all relevant times, Defendant Sunwing, was existing under and by virtue of the laws of Ontario, Canada.

16. At all relevant times, Defendant Royalton, was existing under and by virtue of the laws of Ontario, Canada.

17. At all relevant times, upon information and belief, Defendant Royalton, was a foreign corporation duly authorized to do business within the State of New York.

18. At all relevant times, Defendant Royalton, transacted business within the State of New York.

19. At all relevant times, Defendant Royalton, regularly did or solicited business within the State of New York.

20. At all relevant times, Defendant Royalton, regularly advertised to obtain customers from within the State of New York.

21. At all relevant times, Defendant Royalton, regularly solicited customers from within the State of New York.

22. At all relevant times, Defendant Royalton, advertised to obtain customers from within the State of New York via the internet.

23. At all relevant times, Defendant Royalton, derived substantial revenue from customers obtained from within the State of New York.

24. At all relevant times, Defendant Royalton, derived substantial revenue from interstate and/or international commerce.

25. At all relevant times, Defendant Royalton, expected, or should have reasonably expected, its actions to have consequences within the State of New York

26. Additionally, Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and thereon allege, that this Court is the proper venue for trial because a majority of material witnesses are located here.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

27. On or about December 13, 2019, Plaintiff and their family traveled with the decedent Babette Ewen to the Royalton Blue Waters Resort ("Royalton") in Jamaica to attend their friends' wedding.

28. On or about December 17, 2019, the decedent was sitting by the Royalton pool with her family and friends when she noticed she was feeling ill. She, her family and friends immediately, and repeatedly sought defendant Royalton staff for medical assistance.

29. Defendant's staff receptionists were dismissive to the family's pleas for help and treated the decedent's health with a lack of urgency and responsiveness. Defendant's receptionists took up to ten minutes to locate their hotel nurse, who took more than 15 minutes to arrive at the pool where Babette was losing consciousness and struggling to breathe.

30. During this critical delay, the decedent's condition was rapidly worsening. When defendant's hotel nurse finally arrived to treat the decedent, they brought with them an empty oxygen tank and a bag of expired and non-functioning medical supplies.

31. Once the decedent was brought to the hotel lobby, the defendant's hotel nurse stood by and watched as the decedent's friends were attempting to resuscitate her.

32. Upon information and belief, defendant's hotel staff brought two additional oxygen tanks to try and administer oxygen to the decedent, however both oxygen tanks were either empty or did not have the proper parts to function correctly.

33. As Babette's condition continued to worsen, friends accompanying the decedent asked the hotel nurse if she had any tools to aid in the resuscitation of the decedent such as an automated external defibrillator ("AED"). Upon information and belief, defendant Royalton did not have an AED on-site.

34. An AED is a portable electronic device that automatically diagnoses and treats cardiac arrest by reestablishing an effective heart rhythm. This treatment is called defibrillation, which applies an electric shock to the entire heart muscle, uniformly clearing the electrical activity of the heart, allowing it to resynchronize. The patient can then be safely transported to a hospital for additional health care. Without prompt access to an AED, the great majority of heart attack victims will die before a normal heart rhythm is restored.

35. Given the life-saving efficacy of AEDs, and the relative inexpensiveness of the device and training to use it, by the year 2000 at least, AEDs were standard in corporate and governmental offices, shopping centers, airports, restaurants, sports stadiums, schools, universities, community centers, hotels and other places where large groups of people are invited to gather, and the risk that someone among those invited will suffer a sudden cardiac arrest is quite likely.

36. It was reasonably foreseeable that given the large numbers of hotel guests who stay at the Royalton Hotel, that one of them, such as Ms. Ewen, would likely suffer a sudden cardiac arrest while on the hotel's premises. It was, therefore, highly foreseeable that the defendant's failure to have a functioning AED and oxygen tanks immediately accessible, and trained staff on duty, for such an emergency subjected individuals like Ms. Ewen to an increased risk of death because there would be no timely way to restore normal cardiac rhythm.

37. By failing to have a functioning AED and oxygen tank on the premises of the Royalton Blue Waters Resort, and by failing to adequately train its staff in the use of an AED and oxygen tanks, the defendant disregarded the applicable standard of care for the provision of emergency first aid and guest/invitee protection in places of public accommodation and assembly, to their guests who suffer a sudden cardiac arrest.

38. In addition, Royalton Blue Waters Resort staff did not call for emergency medical services to rush the decedent to a hospital for proper medical care once they realized they did not have the adequate tools to properly treat and resuscitate the decedent.

39. Friends of the decedent notified the decedent's daughter, Shanice Ewen, to come to the hotel lobby to check on her mother.

40. Upon information and belief, once Shanice arrived and surveyed the situation, she attempted to call emergency services for her mother on her cell phone, however, her phone plan did not have international calling and she was unable to summon help. Additionally, the wedding group and friends of the decedent assisting the decedent were unable to call emergency medical aid due to their non-international phone plans.

41. After many precious minutes wasted, and at the urgent demand of the decedent's daughter, defendant Royalton's staff then called emergency services to come to the aid of the decedent. But by then, too much time had passed and it was too late. Babette Ewen tragically passed away and was pronounced dead at the hospital.

42. The Royalton Blue Waters Resort breached its duty to render timely and reasonable aid and protection to its guests, such as decedent Babette Ewen. See e.g. Restatement (Second) Torts, § 314A(1).

43. Ms. Ewen was only 55 years old when she died. Her cause of death was hypertensive heart disease with sudden cardiac death. Had she received a timely, properly administered AED shock by Royalton Blue Waters Resort staff, or received a proper supply of oxygen from a functioning oxygen tank, or had arrived at the hospital sooner, she likely would have survived.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

WRONGFUL DEATH(Against All Defendants and DOES 1 to 30)

44. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference into this cause of action each and every allegation set forth in each and every paragraph of this Complaint.

45. Plaintiff bring this Cause of Action for wrongful death damages pursuant to NY CLS EPTL § 5-4.1, including pecuniary injuries resulting from plaintiff's decedent's death to the persons for whose benefit this action is brought, the reasonable expenses of medical aid, nursing and attention incident to the injuries causing plaintiff's decedent's death and the reasonable funeral expenses of plaintiff's decedent paid by the Distributees, and/or for the payment of which any Distributee is responsible.

46. Pursuant to its relationship with Ms. Ewen, the defendant as owner and operator of the Royalton Hotel had a duty to exercise reasonable care for the safety, protection, and first aid of Ms. Ewen in the event she experienced a medical emergency. It is well-known that when someone has a heart attack, every minute counts. And every minute there is a delay, the risk of harm to the victim increases.

47. Defendants knew, or should have known, that if one of their guests, such as Ms. Ewen, suffered a heart attack or cardiac arrhythmia on its premises, that without timely access to a functioning AED, Defendants were affirmatively creating a dangerous condition, making it reasonably foreseeable that its guests, such as Ms. Ewen, would be severely injured or die before receiving professional emergency care.

48. Defendants knew, or should have known, that if they lacked the proper medical tools to treat a guest, that they should immediately call for professional medical emergency responders.

49. Defendants fell below the standard of care by knowingly delaying the arrival of professional emergency medical treatment once it was clear they lacked the medical tools to properly treat or resuscitate Ms. Ewen.

50. As direct and proximate result of the above-described wrongful acts and omissions, neglect, default and other wrongful conduct of the defendants herein, as alleged above, the failure to provide adequate first-aid and protection to Ms. Ewen, her cardiac episode was not properly and timely treated, and as a result, she could not be resuscitated.

51. The decedent experienced severe emotional panic and mental distress prior to her death, as well as bodily pain and conscious suffering. She also suffered pecuniary loss, including, but not limited to, hospital and medical expenses and loss of future earnings.

52. As direct and proximate result of the above-described wrongful acts and omissions, neglect, default and other wrongful conduct of the defendants herein, as alleged above, plaintiff suffered economic damages including but not limited to medical bills, lost wages, funeral and burial expenses, and other expenses associated with the plaintiff's decedent's injuries and death.

53. That Plaintiff immediately prior to the occurrence was in good health, sound physical condition, industrious, and in possession of all his faculties.

54. That the plaintiff herein and distributees were dependent upon Plaintiff for services and aid, all of which have been lost by the decedent's death; and the plaintiff herein has incurred expenses for medical, hospital, funeral, burial and other expenses in connection with the death of the Plaintiff.

55. By reason of the wrongful acts and/or omissions, neglect, default and other wrongful conduct of the defendants herein, as alleged above, the plaintiff's decedent sustained lost wages, income and benefits, lost earnings capacity and other damages.

56. Accordingly, defendants are liable and responsible for the wrongful death of the plaintiff's decedent and all damages and pecuniary injuries resulting from the plaintiff's decedent's death to the persons for whose benefit this action is brought, the reasonable expense of medical aid, nursing and attention incident to the injuries causing plaintiff's decedent's death and the reasonable funeral expenses of plaintiff's decedent paid by the Distributees, and/or for the payment of which any Distributee is responsible, in an amount to be determined at trial and in an amount that exceeds jurisdictional limits of all lower courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

SURVIVAL DAMAGES

(Against All Defendants and DOES 1 to 30)

57. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference into this cause of action each and every allegation set forth in each and every paragraph of this Complaint.

58. Plaintiff brings this Cause of Action for survival damages pursuant to NY CLS EPTL § 11-3.2(b).

59. By reason of the wrongful acts and/or omissions, neglect, default and other wrongful conduct of Defendants herein, as alleged above, plaintiff's decedent was directly and proximately caused to suffer serious and fatal injuries, including but not limited to severe emotional panic and mental distress prior to her death, as well as bodily pain and conscious suffering up until the time of her demise on December 17, 2019.

60. By reason of the wrongful acts and/or omissions, neglect, default and other wrongful conduct of defendants herein, as alleged above, plaintiff's decedent also suffered pecuniary loss, including, but not limited to, hospital and medical expenses and loss of future earnings.

61. Accordingly, defendants are liable and responsible for the injuries and damages suffered and incurred by the plaintiff's decedent up until the time of her demise, in an amount to be determined at trial and in an amount that exceeds jurisdictional limits of all lower courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction.

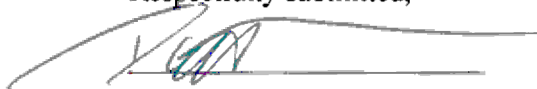

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

Wherefore, plaintiff, as personal representative of the estate of Babette Ewen, by his attorneys Geragos & Geragos, APC, hereby demands a jury trial prays for the following relief: 1) Compensatory damages in an amount to be determined by a jury; 2) Punitive damages in an amount to be determined by a jury; 3) Costs, interests and attorneys fees; and, 4) Such other and further relief as this court may deem just and proper, including injunctive and declaratory relief. Plaintiff demands judgment on all causes of action in an amount exceeding the jurisdictional limits of all lower Courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction, together with interest, costs, and the disbursements of prosecuting this action.
